Prairie Oak Habitat Survey Technician

POSITION DESCRIPTION: The Institute for Applied Ecology will be hiring 3 seasonal technicians to work on a project conducting fire resilient ecosystem (prairie oak habitat) site assessments throughout northwestern Oregon. Field work will involve a variety of botanical survey methods. Technicians will work with the crew leader and program staff to prepare field equipment, conduct field work, and assist in data management. Position will be based in Corvallis, Oregon, and field work will be conducted throughout the BLM's Northwest District (northwestern Oregon). Some out-of-town/overnight travel (accommodations include hotels and camping) is required, and field work will likely consist of 4- to 5-day hitches with weekends off.

START DATE: early May (some flexibility)

END DATE: late July to early August (some flexibility)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- B.S. in a relevant field
- Mature, self-motivated, highly organized, and very comfortable working in and camping with a 2- to 4-person field crew
- Must have a valid driver's license, be willing to travel, and be able to perform strenuous work in all weather conditions
- Physical requirements include ability to hike 10+ miles in rugged terrain carrying a 30-lb load and work in a bent-over/kneeling/sitting position for long periods of time
- Basic computer skills (word processing and spreadsheet applications) required; experience in GIS is a plus
- 1 or more seasons of field research experience, with preference given to those with skills in vegetation monitoring and inventory protocol and identifying plants of the Intermountain West

COMPENSATION: $15.00-16.00/hr depending on experience, plus travel expenses associated with overnight field work (food and lodging). Housing is not provided. This is a full-time temporary position with no benefits.

TO APPLY: You must complete the online application form. In addition, you need to include a letter of interest stating when you will be available to start work (this is a MUST), resume, transcripts (unofficial is fine) as a single PDF document emailed to jobs@appliedeco.org no later than Friday, January 31, 2020. In the email subject line, please write the specific position title (at the top of each announcement) for which you are applying.

You will be required to include the names and contact information for three references in your application form. AT LEAST ONE reference must be from a supervisor from a previous work experience.

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. Non-U.S. residents must also include a copy of their work visa. Applications will be considered upon receipt. Please direct all inquiries to jobs@appliedeco.org.
